

Donation made elementary school

Jan 15, 2019 3:44 PM
Submitted

Pine Chapel Church of Hollister recently donated funds in the effort to support positive behavior. Hollister Elementary School supports Positive Behavior Intervention Support at the school each day, according to Principal Amy Boyette. The students look forward to going to the cub store to shop for goodies they are able to buy using their cub bucks. School officials said they were grateful to Pastor Robert G. Hedgepeth, Deacon Palmer Cyrus and the church for being great community supporters of the schools' efforts.