

Southeast seniors earn more than $1 million in scholarships

Lance Martin News 08 March 2019 2345

Vote 5 ▼

Rate

Southeast Collegiate Prep Academy seniors have been offered more than $1 million in scholarships from a number of colleges and universities.

The schools include Chowan University, Methodist University, Johnson and Wales University, North Carolina Wesleyan College, Wingate University, Elizabeth City State University, North Carolina A&T University, Louisburg College, Fayetteville State University, Mary Baldwin University, Livingstone College, Hartwick College, and more, said school counselor, Courtney Higgins.

"It's my goal in the school counseling department at Southeast Collegiate Prep Academy to make sure all students are college and career ready," Higgins said. "I want to give all of my students every opportunity to see what options they have and help them plan for their future and post secondary plans. I constantly push my students to apply for scholarships and grants. I'm happy to see my hard work of pushing my scholars has paid off."

The students are as follows:

Dante Gary — North Carolina A&T

Aishley Lopez — Nash Community College

Rodnetta Lewis — Virginia Union University

Tionna Seabreeze — Fayetteville State University

Andrea Sanchez — Halifax Community College

Deshawn Smith — UNC Chapel Hill

Caprishiunna Reynolds — North Carolina Central University

Detociah Parker — Halifax Community College

Kadasia Lewis — Winston Salem State University

Alyssa Moss — Fayetteville State University

Quante Bishop — Elizabeth City State University

Camira Myrick — North Carolina State University

Chrisshion Hendricks-Smith — North Carolina Central University

Sheron Hendricks — Elizabeth City State University

Joshua Hunter — Winston Salem State University

TAGS: halifaxcountynews, halifaxcountyschools, scotlandnecknews, southeasthighschool