Hack 4 U!

Have you ever “Reply All”-ed to an email by accident instead of just to the person who sent it? Have you ever hit “Send” on an email and IMMEDIATELY wished you could take it back? If you have and you want to find out how to avoid these situations in the future check out our tutorial video below!

ZAMZAR

Free online file conversion

Zamzar is an online file converter. It supports the conversion of over 1,200 different file types including images, text, video, and audio. While there are paid versions you can use the service for free to convert two documents a day, and at this point this free “trial period” says it will never expire. Since most of us won’t be converting several items at once this could be a very useful tool to keep in mind. Thanks Michele English for sharing this one with us. To go to Zamzar and give it a shot simply click here or on the banner above!
