Google

Hack 4 U!

You may already know that you can add videos from YouTube to your Google Slides presentations, but did you know that you can choose what part of the video you your students to see? Watch this quick clip from Richard Byrne where he explains how to choose a clip from a YouTube video for his presentation instead of the whole thing!

Teacher's Toolbox

Ever heard of or used Google Jamboard? If not, you should check it out. Essentially it is a digital interactive whiteboard you can use with your students! Since it's part of the Google Workspace for Education environment it integrates seamlessly with Google Classroom and Drive. This also allows for real time collaboration both in and out of the classroom! If you want to know more, click the Jamboard icon at the left to check out a great introductory video showing you the basics and giving you some tips!

LOL

it literally FEELS like

Me: You're only answering questions 1, 2, and 3. Again, only answering 1, 2, and 3.

Student (2 seconds later):
Which ones are we doing?

Me: I can't.

TIME FOR TECH

SEE YOU NEXT MONTH!

If you see something you would like to share in Time 4 Tech! Please send it to either Michele or Chris. We'd love to grow a Technology PLC here in Halifax!
